7th Annual San Jose JACL Community Recognition Dinner

By Pat Nakashima

Former Secretary of Transportation Norman Y. Mineta and chapter president Gail Sueki

"It was a cold and rainy night..." BUT, we had over 320 people attending our annual Community Recognition Dinner at the Holiday Inn on November 1, a record-breaker! San Jose JACL is always pleased to honor outstanding members of our community to say "thank you" and let others know what these wonderful people (and groups) do for us. This year's honorees included Ray and Lucy Matsumoto, Warren Hayashi, Jimi and Eiko Yamaichi, James B. Peckham, Sr. and James B. Peckham, Jr. (both posthumously), and Nihonmachi Outreach Committee.

After registration and some socializing, guests were invited to browse the silent auction area. Many thanks to Sharon Uyeda for organizing this part of the event and many, many thanks to the very generous donors! While bidding for the many prizes and visiting with friends, Len Fujita, Michael Yoshihara and Yuki Watanabe provided some easy listening music and there was a 'slide show' that let the attendees know who all the generous donors were. In addition to the silent auction prizes, there were many table donors as well as, of course, the benefit drawing prize donors.

President Gail Sueki welcomed the dinner guests and gave a brief summary of the year's activities. She also asked for a moment of silence to honor the memory of Judge Wayne Kanemoto to whom the dinner booklet was dedicated. Judge Kanemoto was one of the pioneers of San Jose's Japantown as well as being a pioneer in his chosen profession. He was one of the first Nisei to be appointed a judge in the United States mainland. We were honored to have the Honorable Norman Mineta (and wife Deni) present at our dinner; but we weren't expecting another distinguished guest - Congressman Mike Honda! Jeff Yoshioka invited Mike to say a few words to the audience, and Mike graciously acknowledged the role that JACL has played in our community.

Before the honorees were presented, Kenzo Kimura, as Chair for the successful "Road to Redress and Reparations: Celebrating the 20th Anniversary of the Civil Liberties Act," called on Ralph Pearce (father of Michael) to read Michael's first place effort in the essay contest that was run in conjunction with the Saturday forum held at San José City College in August.

The Passing of Two Pillars of the San Jose JACL Board

By Judy Niizawa

Katie Hironaka and Karen Shiraki were a study in contrasts, and similarities.

Their names both began with the letter "K." Comedians consider the letter "K" the most humorous sound in words. I imagine because it is the most dynamic of all of the speech sounds.

Katie and Karen. Two dynamos who came aboard the SJ JACL Board of Directors the same year that I did, 1977. It was time to add women, the men relented.

Katie came with a passion to match up two people, with no holds barred. Her singles club spread all the way to the National JACL level. Karen was the perennial independent single woman of the 70's.

But both Katie and Karen were ferocious in their sense of preserving San Jose and its legacy. Katie was born and raised on Gish Road. Karen was born in a WRA internment camp, and came to San Jose after WW II.

Katie endured WW II both as a mother and a wife of GI serving in the 442nd.

Karen did not remember WW II having been born in the middle of it all. She and Katie both didn't really think redress was an issue at first.

Karen and I first met when she was going to City and I to SJ State. We went on a ski trip in 1964 with the YBA to Squaw Valley.

Katie served on the CSS Board with me beginning in 1977, she represented the VFW. She was very proud to be asked to serve on the Japanese American Resource Center Board and to be a part of preserving the local history when Gary Okihiro established it as a division of the SJ JACL.

Karen took deep pride in the contributions her extended Shiraki-Taketa families had contributed to the local community, especially her uncle late Toshi Taketa and her cousin, Grayson Taketa, both for being forerunners in the political arena.

Katie continued on the board to the very end (1977-2008). Karen took a leave for 14 years when she served as an assistant to the San Jose City Council, then returned with a vengeance.

Both always knew what the community needed. Katie showed up at every thing.

Karen hardly did, but always read the pulse right anyway.

Both were spokespersons for the community and did not hold back in urging others to see their viewpoints. Katie put on her "mother" hat to get the Sansei into line. Karen came on as the head coach who had no tolerance for slouching.

We will miss these two stellar ladies who graced the JACL Board and offered their compassion, wisdom, and joie de vivre. We listened to their voices loud and strong. We will continue to hear their voices in our memories. Rest in peace, Katie and Karen.

JACL/Yu-Ai Kai Seniors Fishing Trip By Leon Kimura

Many years back, Tom Shigemasa with the San Jose JACL started annual senior outings in cooperation with the Yu-Ai Kai Senior Center. We went on fishing trips and also interspersed some field trips to the Angel Island Immigration Center. But in recent years, we have exclusively fished at various pier locations along the coast from Fort Baker to Capitola. On the public piers, fishing licenses are not required and the coastal scenery is always enjoyable! But the fish are typically small unless a lucky fisherman hooks a larger game fish such as a striped bass, salmon or halibut.

But fishermen (and women) are a hopeful lot. And we really look forward to fishing and are even willing to roll out of bed when the roosters are still sleeping in anticipation of landing that keeper fish. Well, I must say that the die-hard Yu-Ai Kai seniors are real troopers including Min and Mitze Tanaka, Tony Una Dia, Ron Javalosa, Mary Ann Robles, Toby and Don Yamamoto, and newcomer Pete Anderson. On September 27th, a statewide free fishing day, they were willing to try a new fishing venue locally here in San Jose, Lake Cunningham, adjacent to Raging Waters. It is a man-made lake that is stocked with catfish and trout although the fish in season were the feisty catfish.

2009 42th Annual San Jose JACL/Tokutomi Math Contest

By Mark Kobayashi

All schools in the Santa Clara County that have students in grades seven to twelve are invited to participate in this mathematics contest. This annual mathematics contest is sponsored by the San Jose Chapter of the Japanese American Citizens League (JACL), the California Mathematics Council Student Activity Trust, the Santa Clara Valley Mathematics Association, the Santa Teresa High School Mathematics Department, Presentation High School.

The purpose of the contest is to stimulate interest in mathematics among students in grades seven to twelve and to encourage them to raise their mathematical abilities. The late Mr. Kiyoshi Tokutomi started the formerly named Hokubei Mainichi Mathematics Contest in 1966. He was the Hokubei Mainichi San Jose Branch Assistant Manager. His wife, Kiyoko continued with the contest when he passed away. Mrs. Tokutomi passed away in December, 2002. In honor of the founders of the contest, the contest has been renamed in their name, Tokutomi.

Our morning volunteers included Jeff Yoshioka, Ron Yamamoto, and my daughter Carrie. They helped carry all the fishing tackle donated each year by Jim Sakamoto and the VFW. We also had President Gail Sueki show up to lend a hand along with Tom and Sue Shigemasa who generously provided the fishing prizes for the seniors and volunteers. There also happened to be hundreds attending a community faire at Cunningham Park including a "kids fishing day" with penned in catfish to catch.

But Min and Mitze caught the first fish on the stinky dough bait we were using. A nice 4.35 pound whiskerfish on Mitze's pole but landed by Min. Then several fish were caught by volunteers, Ron Yamamoto and me, with Tony Una Dia catching the last fish of the day. The kids kept coming by all day to see the "lunkers" up to 4.65 pounds we had on our stringer. Some good bites that doubled over the poles proved unproductive but they sure got the hearts pumping for all the fishermen when they hit that bait! The one's that got away must have been at least 10 pounds easy! ;)

Even though the fish were larger than the typical catch at our usual Seacliff Beach fishing pier, and the weather was warmer in San Jose, the fishing action was not as lively. So I believe that we will bundle up and return to the coast next year to the cement boat, where amongst all the little bites we get, there is always the possibility of that nice striped bass... Ahhh, hope springs eternal!

2008 Honorees

when the honorees were called up to accept their awards – a certificate and glass photo frame with the word kansha (deep appreciation) etched into it (from San Jose JACL) – each honoree was presented by a family member or someone who knew the honoree and was able to fill in more details about the honoree. The Honorable Norman Mineta presented the Peckhams. Jim Peckham, grandson of James B. Peckham, Sr. accepted the award. Kenzo (otherwise known as Stuart) Kimura presented Warren Hayashi, having been a former student of Warren's. Denise Tom presented her parents, Eiko and Jimi Yamaichi. Nephew Glenn Kurimoto presented Lucy and Ray Matsumoto, and Gary Jio presented Reiko Nakayama, current chair of NOC. At the end of the evening, photos were taken of all the honorees, along with the beautifully framed proclamations that Assemblywoman Sally Lieber had made for each of them and the certificates presented by David Chappell who represented Congressman Mike Honda's office. San Jose JACL chapter was also presented a plaque by San Jose Councilmember Kansen Chu.

After the awards, Jeff Yoshioka, Dinner Chair, called up Allison & Emily Kobayashi, and Zachary Konda to do the Benefit drawing – and the winner of four round trip tickets anywhere Southwest Airlines flies was...Jim Craig! All the way from Placer JACL! It was good to see Jim and former NCWNP District Governor Thaya Mune Craig at our dinner. Also present were Larry Oda, National JACL President, Current District Governor Alan Nishi, and District VP Kim Nakahara.

No event of this size and importance can be brought to reality without the support and commitment of many people. Jeff Yoshioka was the "Commander in Chief" for this event, and he had several generals and other "officers" helping him, as well as many, many friends and supporters of JACL. The dinner committee was: Amy Halcrow, Kenzo Kimura, Leon Kimura, Mark Kobayashi, Pat Nakashima, Tom Oshidari, Joyce Oyama, Gail Sueki, Kellie Takagi, and Sharon Uyeda. Volunteers at the dinner were: Colin Boon, Amanda & Katy Drennan, Jeffrey Fudenna, Linda Fujimoto, Mariko Fujimoto, Greg & Nick Hori, Dick & Nancy Kerbel, Allison, Emily & Lisa Kobayashi, Diane Morimune, Sharon Nakamura, Kayla Nishimatsu, Margie Oyama, Doug & Noriko Ray, June Tanaka, Karen Tjhan, and Tim Tom. A special thank you to Kim Delevett – Southwest Airlines, John & Dave Kawahara, Vi Onishi, Michael Yoshihara, Len Fujita, Yuki Watanabe and our hard working photographer John Kimura. We were especially pleased to see many of our youth members in attendance, helping with set-up, holding doors and umbrellas for guests and generally being of assistance whenever they could.
